A DATE FOR YOUR DIARY: 7PM WEDNESDAY 25TH APRIL. As you have been aware for some time now St Mary's Church has been asked by our Bishop to combine the two weekend Masses in Holyhead into one. Whether this will be the Saturday evening Mass or the Sunday morning Mass - nothing has been decided yet. There is a meeting on the above date to allow all interested parties from across the Island to come and listen to what each other has to say. No decision will be made that night - it is a forum for each of us to be aware that whatever change is made it affects the other 7 Faith Communities on Anglesey. How? - you may ask. Well, if Saturday evening Mass goes from Holyhead, where does it go to? And wherever might be suggested the people in that community may say "We don't want it, we are happy with our Sunday morning Mass!" So we need to listen to each other and realise it is not as cut and dried as many seem to think. There are so many different combinations and permutations that a clear cut solution is not evident at the moment. Thankfully many of our Holyhead / Rhosneigr community are the faithful sort who have said that wherever Mass is, and when, we will do our best to be there to worship. This meeting will be led by an experienced facilitator, Mrs Nia Higginbotham, who is coming from Llandudno for the evening. It is hoped many people will attend.
