Dementia – hope on a difficult
journey, by Dr Adrian Trelor, Redemptorist Publications:

Dr Adrian Treloar, a psychiatrist specialising in the care of people with dementia, explains dementia from a medical point of view. He provides practical advice and guidance for friends and carers of people with dementia. Looking through the lens of the Catholic faith, he then discusses good spiritual care – something which is often overlooked. Pauline has ordered 10 copies at a discounted rate. If you would like a copy please contact Pauline.

'Instructions for my Funeral'

At the back of each church you will find a form 'Instructions for my Funeral' together with lists of suggested Readings and Hymns. These are to help you plan your funeral so that you can state what you would like to happen. It can be a great help to family members to have these instructions.
